MAINE BEATS CORNELL IN CROSS-COUNTRY RUN ERASMUS HALLTEAM Former Champions Finish Second, but Fail to Land a Man in First Three—Overton of Yale Followed

Across Line by Preti and Bell of Victors.

Boston, Nov. 20. -Cornell's cross country team, favorite for the annual run of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America, was beaten 51 to 54 points to-day by the University of Maine harriers over the Franklin Park course. A week ago the Maine team won the New England intetcollegiate run over the same course and while it was expected that the evenly balanced squad from the Pine Tree State would make a good showing today it hardly was expected to put a crimp in the aspirations of Jack Monkley's pupils. The victory signalized Maine's first entry in the big intercollegiate. At the start Gulliver of Yale, Duffy of Dartmouth and Puller of Harvard headed the bunch of eighty-odd runners, representing tweive colleges. The squad did not stretch out until the end of the second mile, when to all appear-ances Yale was out to win with Potter, ances Yale was out to win with Potter, Windnagle and Hoffmire in the first five.
